What does the Criminal Justice Service provide?

The criminal justice mental health liaison team provide assessments and advice at custody/courts and seek to ensure that, where appropriate, persons with mental health needs may be required to be diverted from the criminal justice system to care and treatment from the health and social care sectors. They also seek to ensure that, where a prosecution is to be pursued, relevant information about a persons mental health condition is made available to the courts and crown prosecution service.

Opening times and locality

9am-5pm Monday to Friday
Covering Blacon & Middlewich Custody Suites and Cheshire Law Courts

Who is our service for?

The Criminal Justice Liaison Team aims to provide a high quality service towards adults who have mental health needs, and who find themselves at any stage of the Criminal Justice System
